Since its inception in January 2007, the Saint Thomas Aquinas Concert Series has hosted piano, violin, harp, guitar, flute, and of course organ recitals. We not only support the best local talent but some of the most vibrant new artists available. In the past we've invited artists from Westminster Choir College, the Manhattan School of Music, the Catholic University of America and the Juilliard School. We are committed to providing quality free concerts for your enjoyment.
